Dear Wayne,

The National Ski Patrol is pleased to inform you that it will now recognize and accept Medic First Aid International's BLSPRO CPR credential. After review by our National Medical Director Dr. David Johe and Refresher Committee Chairman Dr. John Dobson, we have included your professional-level CPR training and certification as one that meets our membership requirements. This recognition adds your program to a list that includes all major CPR training providers that train in accordance with widely accepted CPR guidelines.

Part of the National Ski Patrol's mission is to provide "exceptional education programs" and Medic First Aid is a part of that effort. Congratulations and thank you for all your efforts.

Thank you,
